"The 'Glimpse of Guatemala Tour' exceeded my expectations! We enjoyed the vibrant city of Antigua with its colonial architecture, museums, colorful marketplaces and shopping and great optional activities including hiking, yoga, weaving demonstrations, cooking classes, and coffee and chocolate workshops. The well-developed itinerary and fabulous local American, Guatemalan and Mayan guides provided fascinating presentations on history, culture, society, spirituality and political life. Among the many highlights, two stand out. We had the opportunity to visit with Mayan villagers and observe the extraordinary impact made by ALDEA and ABPD to improve Mayan quality of life and living conditions. A second highlight was the Holy Week procession. It was a once-in-a-lifetime experience to be a part of the biggest and most elaborate Lenten ceremonies in the world. The tour was more than a glimpse of Guatemala—it was a tour like no other—a transformative experience for me."
